Dear [redacted]:

STAT

I wish to express to you, and through you to [redacted] in Frankfurt, the warm appreciation of FBIS for the outstanding support Tom has been giving [redacted] in furtherance of an important FBIS collection project. FBIS is tasked with providing videotapes of selected foreign TV programs, including West and East German, and must do so in Germany through our one-man liaison with [redacted], unsupported by any kind of local FBIS logistics base. For that reason Larry has had to request help from time to time from Tom to keep his tape supply going. Without Tom's help the project would not have run as smoothly as it has, and would unquestionably have cost the U.S. Government more in time and money.

We think we have our logistics problem under control now, and we should be keeping Larry and his contractor in Frankfurt adequately stocked, as well as providing Tom some replacement tapes for his own stocks. Meanwhile, it is a pleasure to commend Tom for the cheerfulness and professionalism with which he has helped us out of this bind. In so doing, he has demonstrated how inter-agency cooperation should be--but so often is not--conducted.

Sincerely,

Director
